Outstanding Leadership Award

This individual (or family) has exhibited an outstanding work ethic and motivation to “get the job done.” They have inspired other members to become more involved by setting a positive example. Throughout the past sweepstakes year, this individual (or family) has helped at WSRBA sanctioned shows by sorting cards, setting up, tearing down, writing, working raffle tables, and/or assisting with youth programs. They have offered to assist other clubs as a non-member, and/or have assisted with activities directed by the WSRBA Board of Directors or affiliated committees.

Rookie of the Year

This individual (or family) has been a member of the WSRBA for no greater than four consecutive years. They have exhibited a desire to learn and interest in being an active member of our organization by networking with seasoned WSRBA members, and offering to assist with WSRBA activities and/or shows held by WSRBA sanctioned clubs. This individual (or family) exhibits exemplarity sportsmanship and is (are) a positive role model for all WSRBA members. As an organization, the WSRBA would like to recognize and honor new members such as this for taking initiative and positively promoting the Wisconsin rabbit industry.

Writer of the Year

This award recognizes an individual who dedicates their time and knowledge so that WSRBA sanctioned shows run more efficiently. A chain is only as strong as its weakest link, and a show with an ample number of judges is only as efficient as its writers and volunteers. This individual is being recognized for their dedication to our hobby through their willingness and desire to become an efficient writer.
